

To Our Shareholders

We would like to thank you for your continued support.

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, we continued initiatives aimed at medium- to long-term growth, and in addition to the data center and cloud services business and commissioned calculation services business maintaining strong results, system development services for the financial, manufacturing, space- and defense-related industries also grew, and net sales increased from the previous fiscal year. However, due to rising licensing costs, amortization burdens, and personnel costs, operating profit and ordinary profit both declined, but due to a gain on sale of investment securities, profit increased from the previous fiscal year.

With regard to dividends, we propose a year-end dividend of 28 yen per share. Along with the interim dividend already paid, this will bring the total dividend for the full fiscal year to 56 yen per share, an increase of 2 yen over the previous fiscal year and the 13th consecutive year the dividend has increased.

Furthermore, we have launched a new Medium-term Management Plan starting from the fiscal year ending March 31, 2026. The founder of our company, the late Noriyoshi Ikeda, paved the way for our future based on the slogan “Up Stage, Up Player,” and in order to once again inherit our founder’s ideas and demonstrate our determination to achieve sustained growth, we have decided to name our new Medium-term Management Plan “Up Stage 2027.” We will continue our efforts to solve social issues and further enhance our corporate value.

We would like to ask our shareholders for their continuing further understanding and support.

Business Report (April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025)

1 Current Status of the Group

(1) Business Conditions in Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2025

(i) Business Progress and Results

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, the Japanese economy showed a gradual recovery as employment and personal income continued to improve. Meanwhile, due to rising prices stemming from wage increases and the impact of exchange rates, changes in overseas conditions such as geopolitical risks, and major fluctuations in financial markets, the outlook is uncertain.

The information service industry, to which the Group (the Company, consolidated subsidiaries, and equity-method affiliates) belongs, continues to see demand for business efficiency systems to help companies cope with labor shortages and other issues. In addition, the market is expanding as system-related investments are increasing due to the shift of systems to cloud computing, the use of artificial intelligence (AI), and the growing popularity of IoT under the theme of “Digital Transformation (DX).”

Under these circumstances, in the final year of its Medium-term Management Plan (April 2022-March 2025), our Group worked as one to achieve the goals of the Plan.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, net sales were 38,987 million yen (up 3.2% year-on-year (YoY)), operating profit was 2,640 million yen (down 8.5% YoY), ordinary profit was 2,681 million yen (down 8.6% YoY), and profit attributable to owners of parent was 2,259 million yen (up 2.8% YoY).

Net sales increased from the previous fiscal year. With regard to information processing services, data center and cloud services, which are stock businesses, and commissioned calculation services for service stations (“SSs” and “gas stations”) remained strong, and new orders for mailing services also expanded. With regard to system development services, projects in the energy and distribution industries saw a decrease, while those in the financial, manufacturing, space- and defense related industries saw growth.

Both operating profit and ordinary profit decreased from the previous year. In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025, cost of sales remained high, mainly due to higher licensing costs for cloud services and higher amortization burdens for system and capital investments. Though the profit margin gradually improved as a result of the shift in selling prices and reductions in cost of goods sold, the increase in SG&A expenses concentrated on labor costs resulted in a decrease in profit for the full year.

Profit attributable to owners of parent increased from the previous fiscal year, boosted by a gain on sales of investment securities.

	53rd fiscal year (ended March 31, 2024)	54th fiscal year (ended March 31, 2025)	Compared to the previous fiscal year
	Amount (Millions of yen)	Amount (Millions of yen)	Percentage change
Net sales	37,763	38,987	Up 3.2%
Operating profit	2,887	2,640	Down 8.5%
Ordinary profit	2,935	2,681	Down 8.6%
Profit attributable to owners of parent	2,197	2,259	Up 2.8%

Net sales and gross profit by service segment for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2025 are as follows.

Information processing services

Net sales
15,683 million yen
(Up 5.9% YoY)

Gross profit
3,085 million yen
(Down 2.6% YoY)

Net sales were 15,683 million yen (up 5.9% YoY) and gross profit was 3,085 million yen (down 2.6% YoY). The main factors contributing to the YoY increase in sales and decrease in profit were as follows.

- (i) While sales in the data center and cloud services business increased against the background of customers' ongoing needs to shift their systems and software to the cloud, the cost of licenses and other services increased.
- (ii) Though commissioned calculation services for the energy industry secured a certain market share in an environment of declining SSs, the profit margin declined.
- (iii) BPO services performed well, including the acquisition of large-lot projects.

The status of the services that comprise our information processing services is as follows.

Sales of data center and cloud services remained strong against the background of customers ongoing needs to shift to data centers and the cloud.

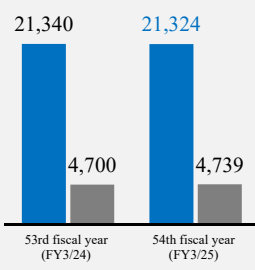

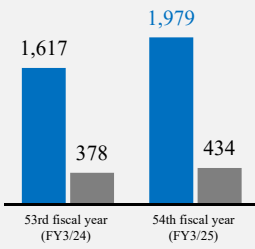

On the other hand, higher licensing fees for software used in cloud services and an increased depreciation burden due to investments in equipment for updating data center facilities caused costs to rise, resulting in a lower profit margin.

Amid a shrinking market in the commissioned calculation services for sales management and fee settlement agent systems for SS, the number of projects switching from in-house systems to our service increased. In addition, orders for "PROPANET," a sales management system for fee settlement compatible with smart meters for propane gas sellers, also increased.

Meanwhile, the profit margin declined due to an increased depreciation burden on our systems.

With regard to mailing services, though demand for printing and mailing services is shrinking, the number of competitors is decreasing and the number of companies that can provide stable services is limited, and this resulted in an increase in orders for our services. Expansion of services through the acquisition of business from other companies also contributed to the increase in sales. Profit margins were on par with the previous fiscal year, compensating for the decline in profits from other services.

System development services Net sales 21,324 million yen (Down 0.1% YoY) Gross profit 4,739 million yen (Up 0.8% YoY)	Net sales in system development services were 21,324 million yen (down 0.1% YoY) and gross profit was 4,739 million yen (up 0.8% YoY). (iii) Two system development subsidiaries showed steady progress. We saw no growth in system development projects for the energy and distribution industries, which are our major customers. Meanwhile, growth in orders for development projects in the financial and manufacturing industries along with the space and defense industries, as well as the strong performance of two Group companies offset the decline in sales, resulting in sales that were almost on par with the previous fiscal year. In the first half of the fiscal year, profit margins declined due to delays in some development projects, but efforts to reduce costs and strengthen project management paid off, resulting in a year-on-year increase in gross profit for the full year.	Net Sales/Gross Profit (Millions of yen)  <table border="1"> <thead> <tr> <th>Fiscal Year</th> <th>Net Sales (Millions of yen)</th> <th>Gross Profit (Millions of yen)</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>53rd fiscal year (FY3/24)</td> <td>21,340</td> <td>4,700</td> </tr> <tr> <td>54th fiscal year (FY3/25)</td> <td>21,324</td> <td>4,739</td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Fiscal Year	Net Sales (Millions of yen)	Gross Profit (Millions of yen)	53rd fiscal year (FY3/24)	21,340	4,700	54th fiscal year (FY3/25)	21,324	4,739

(4) Challenges

Japanese economy is expected to continue to face a challenging economic environment, as there is still a strong sense of uncertainty about the future due to concerns about inflation caused by rising prices and changes in overseas circumstances. Meanwhile, investments in system development and software, including the promotion of digital transformation (DX), are further increasing, and the steady expansion of the information service industry market is expected to continue unchanged.

In this environment, the Group positions its core business, information processing services, as a platform for advancing DX for customers and solving social issues, and will continue to focus on expanding this business. By strengthening our information processing services through the expansion of our in-house data centers and providing one-stop services in combination with system development, we will enhance our Group's advantageous position and expand our business base.

We believe that our main challenges going forward will be to strengthen our capacity to respond to rising costs, including rising energy prices and license fees and the amortization burden of data center and system investments, to expand our customer base by enhancing our services, and to secure and develop human resources.

(The Group's business model)

The Group's business is configured of three service segments, including the two major services of "information processing services" and "system development services," and their associated "product sales" service.

The "information processing services" segment utilizes in-house data centers operated by the Company. This is also our core business, which started out as commissioned calculation business for service stations (SSs, gas stations), the Group's founding business. The information processing services segment comprises "data center and cloud services," "commissioned calculation services," and "print, mailing, and BPO (Business Process Outsourcing) services."

Our "system development services" is a business of contracted projects for the development/operation of software and hardware. The Group mainly receives commissions from companies in the finance, distribution, energy- and space-related industries for the development of software applications, etc.

We can provide an optimal combination of "information processing services" and "system development services" centered on its own in-house data centers. The Group's services include DX solutions, cloud services, commissioned calculation, fee settlement, printing, mailing, and BPO services, system development, embedded control, infrastructure development, operation and monitoring, etc.

By providing safe, one-stop services optimized to meet the needs of our customers in the DX era, the Group is developing a unique business that is not offered by any other company. As "I-NET for operation and BPO," we have established a solid business foundation in the information processing industry.

To provide incentives to sustainably increase corporate value and to promote further value sharing with shareholders, the Company has introduced a transfer-restricted stock remuneration plan (hereinafter, the "Plan") for Directors (excluding Directors who are members of the Audit and Supervisory Committee and outside Directors; hereinafter referred to as "Eligible Directors"). The Eligible Directors will pay all of the monetary remuneration claims paid by the Company under the Plan as assets contributed in kind, and will receive the issuance or disposal of the Company's common stock. The total amount of monetary remuneration claims to be paid to the Eligible Directors for the grant of restricted stock is no more than 100 million yen a year, and the total number of shares of the Company's common stock to be issued or disposed of under the Plan is limited to 50,000 shares per year. The amount of remuneration paid to Directors does not include the employee salaries of Directors who concurrently serve as employees. At the conclusion of that Annual General Meeting of Shareholders, the number of Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) was eight (including two outside Directors). Furthermore, the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 25, 2024 adopted a resolution that the total amount of monetary remuneration to be paid for the granting of restricted stock, which is separate from the above remuneration limit, would be no more than 100 million yen per year (Up to 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock to be issued or disposed of by paying all such monetary remuneration claims as assets contributed in kind per year). The number of Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) at the conclusion of this General Meeting of Shareholders will be eight (including three outside Directors).

The Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 24, 2020 adopted a resolution to set the amount of remuneration, etc. for Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members to be within 40 million yen per year. The number of Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members at the conclusion of that Annual General Meeting of Shareholders is four (including four outside Directors).

- (d) Policy for determining individual remuneration, etc. for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members)

The Board of Directors has resolved the policy for determining individual remuneration, etc. for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members), which is summarized as follows. The Board of Directors has confirmed that the specific remuneration, etc. of each individual Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) for the relevant fiscal year as well as the specific methods of determination are consistent with the decision-making policies resolved at the Board of Directors' meetings and in accordance with the recommendations of the Nominating and Compensation Committee. Thus, the Board of Directors has determined that these matters were consistent with the policies for determining remuneration.

- i) Basic policy

The basic policy on remuneration for the Company's Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) is that the remuneration system shall be linked to shareholders' benefits so that remuneration functions as an incentive to continuously improve corporate value, and that when deciding on remuneration for individual Directors, it shall be an appropriate level based on their respective work responsibilities. Specifically, remuneration for Executive Directors consists of the basic remuneration, which is their fixed remuneration, and stock-based remuneration, while Directors and outside Directors who have supervisory functions and are not engaged in business execution are only paid a basic remuneration, given their work.

- ii) Policy for determining amount of basic remuneration (monetary remuneration) for individuals

The Company's basic remuneration for its Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) is the fixed remuneration paid every month, and is determined based on comprehensive consideration of their job responsibilities, performance in each fiscal period, extent of contributions, and other.

- iii) Policy regarding determining the content and method of calculating the amount or number of non-monetary remuneration, etc.

Non-monetary remuneration, etc. shall be in the form of restricted stock, and the total amount of monetary remuneration paid for the granting of restricted stock shall be no more than 100 million yen per year. Specific allocation shall be determined based on a comprehensive consideration of operating profit, profit, ordinary profit, net sales, etc. in the short term, and ROE, stock price, and total market value in the long term, and shall be reflected in the remuneration for the following fiscal year. The Board of Directors shall make a resolution on the timing of the payment in July each year, and the payment shall be allocated in August.

- iv) Policy on deciding on percentage of monetary remuneration and non-monetary remuneration, etc. making up individual Directors' remuneration, etc.

The Nominating and Compensation Committee examines remuneration proportions by type for Executive Directors by objectively comparing remuneration levels and the connection to performance using data on director remuneration from an outside research organization in order to ensure objectivity and appropriateness. The Board of Directors (the Representative Director and Executive President who is delegated in line with v.) respects the recommendations of the Nominating and Compensation Committee, and the content of the remuneration, etc. for individual directors is determined within the scope of the percentage of remuneration by type laid out in these recommendations. The policy is that payment should be made at the optimal percentages so that shareholders and managers share the same interests and it contributes to the sustainable improvement of corporate value.

- v) Matters related to decisions on content of Directors' individual remuneration, etc.

Based on the resolution by the Board of Directors, the Representative Director and Executive President is delegated to make decisions on the specific content of individuals' remuneration. Authority over this decision extends to the amount of basic remuneration for Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) and the number of shares allocated to individuals as stock-based remuneration. The Board of Directors receives feedback and recommendations on the draft from the Nominating and Compensation Committee to ensure that this authority is exercised appropriately by the Representative Director and Executive President. The Representative Director and Executive President, having been given this authority, must make decisions in line with these recommendations.

- vi) Important matters related to decisions on content of other remuneration, etc. for individuals

Stock remuneration, which is non-monetary remuneration, etc. in the form of transfer-restricted shares, is subject to a claw back clause in which all or some of the stock remuneration is returned without consideration in the event that the Director engages in inappropriate actions or violates laws during his/her tenure.

- (e) Matters related to delegation of authority to determine individual Directors remuneration, etc.

Pursuant to a resolution of the Board of Directors meeting held on February 19, 2021, the Company has delegated authority to Tomomichi Saeki, Representative Director and Executive President, to determine the specific details of individual remuneration, etc. of Directors (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members). The content of the delegated authority includes the determination of the amount of basic remuneration and the number of shares to be allotted to each individual Director (excluding Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members) as stock-based remuneration. The reason these authorities have been delegated is that the Representative Director and Executive President is best suited to evaluate the businesses for which each Director is responsible, while overlooking the overall business performance of the Company as a whole. The Board of Directors receives feedback and recommendations on the draft from the Nominating and Compensation Committee to ensure that this authority is exercised appropriately by the Representative Director and Executive President. The Representative

Director and Executive President, having been given this authority, must make decisions in line with these recommendations.

Remuneration for each Director who is an Audit and Supervisory Committee Member is determined within the total amount of remuneration resolved at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders through discussions among the Directors who are Audit and Supervisory Committee Members, taking into consideration whether the Director serves full-time or part-time and the division of duties.

(v) Matters concerning outside Directors and other officers

Concurrent positions held by outside Directors are as described in “(3) (i) Status of Directors” under “Significant concurrent positions outside the Company.”

Opinion

We have audited the Consolidated Financial Statements, which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet, the Consolidated Statement of Income, the Consolidated Statements of Changes in Equity and the related notes of I-NET Corp. ("the Company") and its consolidated subsidiaries (collectively referred to as "the Group"), as at March 31, 2025 and for the year from April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025 in accordance with Article 444, paragraph (4) of the Companies Act.

In our opinion, the Consolidated Financial Statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position and the results of operations of the Group for the period, for which the Consolidated Financial Statements were prepared, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in Japan, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other Information

The other information comprises the business report and its supplementary schedules. Management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of the other information. The Audit and Supervisory Committee is responsible for overseeing the directors' performance of their duties with regard to the design, implementation and maintenance of the reporting process for the other information.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Management and the Audit and Supervisory Committee for the Consolidated Financial Statements and Others

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Japan and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Audit and Supervisory Committee is responsible for overseeing the directors' performance of their duties with regard to the design, implementation and maintenance of the reporting process for the other information.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We also:

- Identify and assess the risk of material misstatement due to fraud or error. In addition, audit procedures shall be designed and implemented to address the risks of material misstatement. The selection and application of audit procedures are at the discretion of the auditor. Further, we obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence on which to base our opinion.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, while the objective of the audit is not to express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate whether the presentation and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements are in accordance with accounting standards generally accepted in Japan, the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform an audit of the consolidated financial statements in order to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries to provide a basis for our opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for directing, supervising and reviewing the audit of the consolidated financial statements. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit and Supervisory Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit and Supervisory Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Interest required to be disclosed by the Certified Public Accountants Act of Japan

We do not have any interest in the Group which is required to be disclosed pursuant to the provisions of the Certified Public Accountants Act of Japan.
